To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Aiden Rodriguez to your athletic program. I have known Aiden since he was a student in my seventh grade English class. He has always been a dedicated student who strives for excellence in sports and academics. His positive attitude in class was especially evident this year in my hybrid online sophomore English class. Though we have struggled throughout the last few months with online learning, Aiden has not missed one class nor has he failed to perform less than admirably.

As a student athlete, Aiden will bring your sports program two things: dedication and perseverance. No matter what you ask of him, Aiden will do his best to achieve the task. His commitment to baseball has been evident throughout his entire high school and middle school career. I have no doubt that he will be a valuable addition to your program.
